Greetings and warm welcome to all Anatomists of India and around the globe ... From organizing committee.

We at Tomo Riba Institute of Health and Medical Sciences (TRIHMS) are delighted and honoured to announce that "70th NATCON 2023, a National Conference of Anatomical Society of India" will be organized by the Department of Anatomy, Tomo Riba Institute of Health and Medical Sciences (TRIHMS), Naharlagun, Arunachal Pradesh from 29th November to 2nd December 2023.

The 70th NATCON 2023 will facilitate the podium for anatomists to swap their perspectives/outlooks on the transfigured concepts and advances of Anatomy. The delegates can utilize an opportunity to interconnect with the experts in Anatomy across the world regarding new strategies in academics, trends in research, and novel clinical relevance in anatomy. There will be various guest lectures, panel discussions, workshops, scientific research presentations, award paper presentations, and poster presentations. We welcome all eminent anatomists and colleagues with your family members to participate and make this event successful.
